Maximizing the Value of Your Private Company

This seminar is designed to help business owners and senior executives better understand how to maximize shareholder value in their companies. With answers to questions such as:

What is my company worth?

What can I do to increase the value of my company?

How much should we pay for an acquisition target?

How much debt should we use in our company?

What can I do to make my company attractive to buyers?

Featuring:

Chris Nobes C.A., C.B.V

Chris is Managing Director of Campbell Valuation Partners Limited and Veracap Corporate Finance. His practice focuses on shareholder disputes, income tax reorganizations, family succession and acquisitions and divestitures of privately held companies. Chris is a contributing editor of Canada Valuation Service (Thomson- Carswell, periodical). Chris speaks at seminars across the country and prepares custom designed workshops on business valuation, acquisitions & divestitures and related topics.
